This is the third book in the Mctiernay series by Michele Sinclair. Seven books are planned (one for each of the brothers--see list below) but only the first 4 are out. While I read and reviewed the first book (Conor's story), and was disappointed, with each book she has improved. This is the best yet.

The wild northern Highlands need a laird who can guide them. Seven Mctiernay brothers, each a highlander born to protect Scotland and her people, warriors known for their quick wits and quicker broadswords. The third brother, Cole, stared death in the face when he was only a boy... Now Cole Mctiernay is a man.

The author of Desiring the Highlander "entertains with noble self-sacrifice, double deceptions, sizzling attraction, and affectionate meddling" (Publishers Weekly). Of the seven bold brothers born to defend their Scottish Highlands, Crevan Mctiernay is the most restrained. But that doesn't make him any less passionate . . .

Highland laird Conor Mctiernay had always dreamed of an enduring love. But the reality of women who desired him only for his title and lands made him swear off marriage forever. That is until he first set eyes on the Englishwoman his men found hiding in the forest. Beneath the dirt and grime it was clear Laurel Cordell was beautiful.
