Perhaps the title is aimed at better book sales rather than at describing the true content of the book, which is about far more than the "Happy Valley Set" . For anyone interested in Kenya history from the time of the early Pioneers to Independence, I thoroughly recommend this book.

The Happy Valley set was a group of hedonistic, largely British and Anglo-Irish aristocrats and adventurers who settled in the "Happy Valley" region of the Wanjohi Valley, near the Aberdare mountain range, in colonial Kenya and Uganda between the 1920s and the 1940s. In the 1930s, the group became infamous for its decadent lifestyles and exploits amid reports of drug use and sexual promiscuity.

Happy Valley is a place of dreams and secrets, of snow and ice and wind. In this remote little town, perched in its landscape of desolate beauty, everybody has a story to tell about loss and longing and loneliness, about their passion to escape. I must get away, thinks Dr. Oliver Halliday, thinks Alys Browne, thinks Sidney Furlow.

About Fred Lamkin and Happy Valley, by Ted Lamkin. Ted Lamkin wrote the following story for SCVHistory.com in about 1996. The Newhall Garage was owned and operated by my father, Fred R. Quick thinking from hero firefighters and residents saved Happy Valley from catastrophe at the eleventh hour on Sunday night. Ground crews and aerial firefighting teams worked in the dark to push the bushfire around the township, while Happy Valley residents said yesterday they were forced to man hoses and use sprinklers to defend their homes.
