All Jamie Lassiter wants is to marry his best friend ' s sister and settle down for the rest of his life in Chance Creek. He ' s saved his money, bought into the Cruz Guest Ranch and he ' s ready for that wedding, but Claire Cruz is nowhere to be found. Claire ' s too busy leaving Montana behind to care about cowboys or their wedding plans. She ' s got plans of her own—a trip around the world. She ' ll go as soon as she buys her tickets and she doesn ' t care if she ever sees Chance Creek again. Desperate to change Claire ' s mind, Jamie proposes a bet: give him six weeks to convince her to marry him. If he can ' t, he ' ll pay for her round-the-world tickets himself. Claire can wait six weeks if it means free tickets and a chance to get a little revenge on a man who once broke her heart. She ' s got only one stipulation: Jamie can ' t touch or flirt with her—or any other woman—while the bet is on. Now Jamie ' s on the run from a bevy of cowboy-groupie ranch guests, and Claire ' s learning she cares about the ranch—and Jamie—more than she dreamed possible. Maybe it ' s time to lose that bet. As long as Jamie loses it first. she's shared his house for more than two months, she's remained elusive. Luke's ready to cross that divide, and win her love for good. Mia would give anything to marry Luke, but he won't want her once he knows the truth; she ' s four months pregnant with another man ' s child. It's time to find a real home—and a real job—so she can raise her baby alone. When a nosy neighbor exposes Mia ' s pregnancy at his brother's wedding, Luke sees his chance to finally get what he wants. He lays claim to the baby—and to Mia—but their happily-ever-after lasts barely a day. When Luke's pride clashes with Mia's need for independence, Mia calls their brand new engagement off. Can Luke convince her to change her mind? Or will these wedding bells sound the death knell of their relationship? Rob Matheson's a fighter. Flattening enemies with his fists or with his legendary practical jokes, he's a tough enemy, and a troublesome friend. But Rob doesn't know how much longer he can keep up the act. As his buddies get married one by one, he's left with his lonely life - and the sinking feeling he lost more than his dreams when he traded them for a thick skin. Now Rob's father has issued a challenge - he'll give 200 acres of prime Montana ranchland to the first of his four sons to wed. No conditions, no meddling. Could this be a chance to become the man he really wants to be? Morgan Tate's worked for years to climb the ladder to a top job at Cassidy Wineries, but Duncan Cassidy, the boss' son, always stands in her way. Now he's issued an ultimatum; marry him or he'll make sure she never works in the wine industry again. Morgan wants marriage--and a family--but not with Duncan. A certain cowboy in Chance Creek, Montana, has stolen her heart. When Rob offers Morgan a proposition--marry him and split the land - they both find themselves with an ethical dilemma. They don't know each other well enough to wed, but they can't lie about their intentions to their families, either. Now they've got sixty days to fall in love, and a passel of family and friends determined to keep them apart. The victims of Rob's previous jokes are lining up to get their revenge, and Morgan's half-sister, Claire, is stirring up their mother's past. Will it take the biggest practical joke of all to convince the world--and themselves--that they're truly meant to be man and wife? Ethan Cruz should be mending fences on his Montana ranch, but instead he's driving to the Chance Creek, Montana, airport - to pick up the bride he didn't know he had. This latest salvo in his ongoing practical joke battle with his best friend, Rob Matheson, has gone too far, and Ethan plans to send his "bride" right back home, then get busy plotting his revenge. One look at Autumn Leeds changes his mind, however. Perhaps he needs a bride, after all. A breathtakingly beautiful city bride. Autumn Leeds needs a story - fast - or she's going to lose her lucrative contract with CityPretty Magazine, so when she sees the crazy video plea for a modern mail-order bride for a cowboy, it sounds like the story of the century. Making a video of her own, she casts herself as the perfect mail-order bride for a rancher, but when she finally reaches Montana, she's surprised to find Ethan's the perfect cowboy husband-to-be. Against her better judgment, her plan to keep her handsome groom at arm's length disintegrates into a night of passion spent in his arms. Ethan knows he can't keep playing this game - he has to come clean with Autumn and tell her the truth; about the practical joke and about the state of his ranch. He's about to lose it all because of the debts his mother racked up before his parents' deaths. Now his sister, Claire, wants to sell the ranch and collect what little money they can. He'll be out of a home and a job, and in no shape to support the bride he desperately wants to marry, after all. Autumn's in bigger trouble than ever. Not only has she fallen in love with the subject of her expose - she might be carrying his child. If she doesn't write this article and secure her contract for another year, she'll lose everything - her career, her apartment, and more

After traveling around the globe for over a year, Cole Linden is more than ready to return home to Montana, so when his fiancé e, Sunshine, suddenly cuts their trip short and books them flights back to Chance Creek, Cole feels like the holidays have come early this year. He hopes she ' ll love the present he bought her: a restaurant space downtown. If only he can transform it into the sleek, modern style she likes before Christmas, maybe she ' ll finally agree to set a date for their wedding. Sunshine can ' t believe she ' s pregnant, but she is, which means it ' s high time to get back home. It also means she needs to re-think her career goals. She can ' t run a world-class restaurant in tiny Chance Creek—especially not with a baby. So Cole will have to be the breadwinner of the family. Which means he needs a ranch. Luckily she ' s found one. Three hundred acres of prime ranch land and a wonderful—if dilapidated—house. With Christmas looming, she ' ll need to race to turn it into the comfortable family home they ' ll need as soon as they get married. But when a delayed flight results in the loss of their hotel room, Cole and Sunshine realize they ' ll have to couch surf through the holidays. Staying with each of their friends in turn leads to a series of revelations that might undermine their relationship for good. Can Cole and Sunshine make it until Christmas? Or will this be the holiday that ends it all? Jake Matheson can't get Hannah Ashton out of his mind, and he can't wait to take over the reins at his family's ranch, either. Too bad Hannah is about to leave town and his father, Holt, has no intention of retiring. In fact, he's issued an ultimatum--convince Hannah to wed in thirty days, or forget about ever running the ranch. Jake would do just about anything to keep her in Chance Creek--anything but mess with their birth control. Hannah has never been able to control herself around Jake, so when fate throws her together with him, she makes the most of it. Why not have a short-lived fling before she leaves town to go to veterinary school? But when their birth control fails it seems all too convenient a way to keep her in town when she's determined to leave. Will the truth bring them together? Or tear them apart for good? Bella Chatham will lose everything — her veterinary practice, her animal shelter, and even her home — if she can ' t find another source of income, fast. So when her best friend signs her up for the hot new reality television show, Can You Beat a Billionaire, Bella accepts the challenge and hopes against hope she can win the ten million dollar prize. If she doesn ' t, it ' s bye-bye pet clinic and shelter, bye-bye Chance Creek, Montana, and hello to marriage to the billionaire for a year! Evan Mortimer, billionaire, can ' t believe he ' s reduced to competing in a television contest to win a wife. Unfortunately, it ' s the only foolproof way to secure his position as head of Mortimer Innovations. At least he 'll be able to dump his " spouse " at the end of the year. He has no intention of getting hitched for life. Bella doesn ' t expect her adversary to be handsome — or funny, or compassionate — but Evan ' s all three, and he ' s proving a tough competitor, too. When they end up sharing a tent — and a sleeping-bag — her body betrays her with a longing so deep it cuts her to the core. Still, this cowgirl must stay strong. If Evan uncovers her secret fears, he ' ll use them to win the contest — and then he ' ll own her for a year. She ' ll be out of luck, out of cash, and stuck being Mrs. Mortimer until he kicks her to the curb. Too bad she can ' t decide which is worse — winning the show and losing Evan forever, or losing the show and only being his temporary wife. Evan can ' t believe he ' s falling for the one woman who doesn ' t want him. This cowgirl ' s not impressed by his money, his name, or his inability to sleep in a tent with her for an entire night, but every look and touch she gives him sends his desire through the roof. With a director determined to use his claustrophobia to make him look like a fool, and an adversary so sexy he can hardly see straight, he ' ll need all his savvy to come out on top. Too bad he ' s going to lose no matter how this show turns out. If he beats Bella, he ' ll destroy the first woman he ' s ever loved. If he doesn ' t beat her, it ' s bye-bye Mortimer Innovations. Will either of them remember in time that it ' s not who wins or who loses — it ' s how they play the game that really counts?
